

Dr. Yoo, Jae-Hoon

Dr. Yoo, Jae-Hoon is the Chairman of Asia Future Institute, NGO for public diplomacy. He is also the founder and Chairman of Chinese Capital Market Society which is one of the most renowned associations of Korean experts on Chinese financial market. He is an honorary member of French Korea Chamber of Commerce and Industry. He is also working as a board member of Hana Bank in Korea. He holds professorship in Konkuk University(Public Administration, Korea) and Shandong University of Finance and Economics(China-Japan-Korea Institute, China).

During his 30-year career in the Korean government, he worked as a spokesperson for the Financial Services Commission (2008-2009), Director General of the Treasury Bureau at the Ministry of Strategy and Finance(Dec.2009-Mar.2011), and Commissioner of the Securities and Futures Commission(Apr.2012). He also worked as Chairman and CEO of Korea Securities Depository (Nov.2013-Oct.2016).

He worked in various international financial organizations including the Asian Development Bank (economist, 1997-2000), World Bank Group (Sr. securities market specialist, 2005-2008), and the Asian Infrastructure Investment Bank (Controller/Director General, 2016-2019).

Dr.Yoo has a BA in economics and an MA in public administration from Seoul National University. He also obtained MA (DEA) in international economics at Sciences Po de Paris and graduated from the Ecole Nationale d'Administration (ENA) in France. He holds a PhD in economics from Kyonggi University in Korea.